

Contested Greek-German Pasts. An Initiative for Students and Young Scholars(DAAD Program “Hochschuldialog mit Südeuropa”)*Project leaders: Prof. Dr. Ulf Brunnbauer (University of Regensburg)

Prof. Dr. Christina Koulouri (Panteion University, Athens)

ROUND TABLEGREECE AND GERMANY IN THE ECONOMIC CRISIS: RELATIONS, ATTITUDES, STEREOTYPES*Goethe Institute, Tuesday 10 March 2015, 7 p.m.Moderator : Christina Koulouri, Panteion UniversitySPEAKERS*Dimitri A. Sotiropoulos, University of Athens

Attitudes of Greek politicians towards the European Union and Germany after the start of the economic crisis

Vassiliki Georgiadou, Panteion University

Anti-Memorandum discourse and enemy images as prerequisites for the rise of right-wing populism in Greece

Xenia Kounalaki, newspaper Kathimerini

Today’s Germany seen as Fourth Reich and Greece as the small village of Asterix: mutual clichés constructed and reflected in the Mass Media